5. 2. 3. 1. 7

Chief, Task Force 1

Chief of Police, JMWAVE
Operational/ YROSP/HUNES

ACTION RECOMMENDED: None; FYI

1. Subject was removed from CAC on 3 September 1950 and taken to a safe site where he was detained for 14 months. The purpose of the detaining was to ascertain the subject's relation with Cuba and determining if he had any relationship with the CIA or any other security organization.

2. During the course of the debriefing the subject appeared to be willing to cooperate and there were no indications of an attempt at deception. However, it is felt that the subject is a sharp operator, an opportunist and an individual motivated by his wife. He is very verbose, loud and attempts to hold the floor at all times.

2. CRELLANA claims that he had no relationship with the Cuban G-2, that he knew Fausto VALDERRAMA, Chief of the G-2, Manuel PINCIPO, Deputy Chief of the G-2, but that he never conducted any business with them. He stated that he knew several agents by sight but never knew their names. He is of the opinion that all members of the G-2 are Communists and individuals of very low caliber.

9. Subject was granted asylum in the Uruguayan Embassy on 06.07.61 April 1967, which he obtained through [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED], leader of the Guerrilla Union [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]. According to subject he had to seek asylum in the Uruguayan Embassy because he was in danger or being picked up by the Cuban Security Services. He claimed that in December 1961 he was engaged in the transportation of material and personnel from Habana to the "Segundo Frente" in the local Ray Mountains, in the Province of Santa Clara. At that time he was cooperating with Captain (Pnu) SALAS, Elie ALFARIN, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
GONZALEZ Arroyo, [REDACTED] Captain Ramiro ESPINOZA and [REDACTED]
PARALTA. According to subject, an individual named [REDACTED] was arrested in March 1962 and during the course of his interrogation by the Security Service. "Fidelito" denounced the subject. In view of the subject's past and present activities.

3. "Fidelito" admitted that during the last year he was engaged in negotiations for the purchase of arms from Cuban contacts. That during the month of September, 1961, he was in Los Angeles, California where he traveled to the office of purchasing arms from a Cuban contact. He said that he did not purchase the arms from the contact but that he did make arrangements for the contact to deliver the arms to other contacts. It is noted that the subject was engaged in other criminal activities which he did not mention. This section is based on the information provided in the attached Personal History statement regarding his travel and the short term jobs he held in the past.

4. Subject also admitted that he was arrested on 26 April 1961 by the DTI because of his connection with a group engaged in the purchase and sale of U.S. currency on the black market. According to Subject he was a friend of RAMON RODRIGUEZ who was engaged in the purchase of U.S. currency. Subject endeavored to take out of the country. One of RAMON's associates, Vicente Benito "MUEL" Hernandez and Juan "PABLO" Pineda, were arrested by the Security Services. Allegedly "MUEL" and RODRIGUEZ informed the Security Services that the subject knew the whereabouts of RAMON. Subject was arrested and asked to provide the address of RAMON. Subject failed to do so. RAMON was held for four days he was held out by "MUEL" and RODRIGUEZ, who were released a few days before the release of Subject.

5. Subject denies any association with the Communist Party, C-2 or any other Security Service. He claims that he hates Communism and is willing to do anything in his power to combat Communism and liberate Cuba. Subject is an informant of the CUBAN interest and was returned to the U.S. for his services. Subject does not contemplate any future contact with the
