Soldiers Arms and Gunships for the Republics of Guatemala and Salvador.

Sources: Rafael Vivasquez, Corporation Channel 23 TV Guat. Date collected: Feb. 5/72

INFORMATION

On Saturday Feb. 5th 1972, during the taping of an interview with Rafael Vivasquez, one of the Ministers of the Guatemalan Government, at the hotel Excelsior in Miami, Florida, the source observed and overheard a conversation between Mr. Vivasquez and Salvador Allende. Handwritten: 14-00000-0020 Allende, together with Salvador Allende, Handwritten: 14-00000-0020 engaged in the sale of arms to the Military Armament Corp. and other offices with offices at Salvador Allende Handwritten: 14-00000-0020 Ferdinand was giving Allende documents in the Handwritten: 14-00000-0020 Ministry of Defense of Guatemala, and the Ministry of Defense of Salvador with details as to an order for the purchase of arms, apparently gathered by the source from the conversation) the Guatemalan Government is supplying arms to for itself but also for the Salvadorans. In the reference in the conversation to guerrilla activity in the Peten area in Guatemala and to the effect that the organization "Frente Unido", an extremist group, is in reality a branch or secret arm of the current Guatemalan Government.
The source may travel to Guatemala for a report ordered by his employer, on or about February 20th.
The home address of Salvador Allende Jr is 2111 N.W. 12th Street, Miami, Fla.
Rafael Vivasquez and Allende may have been selling arms to some Cuban allies who have engaged in combat actions to Cuba recently.

1. AMOT report OTA-1901, from AMOTEX-10 (please protect), who obtained the information from conversation with Rolando MASFERRER Rojas on 28 January 1970, follows: a. MASFERRER said that two officers belonging to the Green Berets had promised him to give special military training to his friends. This training will start in February 1970 and will be conducted on weekends in the Everglades. (MASFERRER did not mention the names of these two officers, or where in the Everglades the training will be conducted). b. According to MASFERRER, these two officers also promised to standardize their weapons by furnishing M-16 rifles and other war materiel to them. c. MASFERRER also said that, during the week of 19-24 January 1970, the two officers had taken Alfredo MUNIZ to a Green Beret camp located in the northern part of Florida. MUNIZ, according to MASFERRER, is a former member of the Cuban National Police and was involved in the killing of some students at 7 Humboldt St., Havana. SUBJECT OPERATIONAL/AMOT Libertad Attacks on CIA and Collaborators
ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES
Reference: UFPA-1014, 18 June 1969
1. Forwarded herewith are numerous clippings from Libertad, a weekly newspaper, published in Miami by Rolando MASFERRER Rojas, (201-042669), concerning attacks on CIA and its collaborators. Although Libertad does not get wide circulation in Miami it undoubtedly is received in Cuba and allows the DGI to focus on targets. 2. AMOTEX-36 reported (OTA-1212) on a conversation he had with Juan MORENZA Abreu, managing-editor of Libertad, in which MORENZA told him of a meeting on 7 February 1969 of some of the members of the staff of Libertad. The following were present: Jose NOGUEROL, General Manager (probably Jose Felix NOGUEROL y Conde); Juan GONZALEZ Andino, aka "Nano", who was then assistant director of Libertad, until 21 February 1969; Juan MORENZA Abreu; and Rolando MASFERRER Rojas, editor in chief. NOGUEROL, GONZALEZ and MORENZA told MASFERRER that they were dissatisfied and displeased with Libertad's constant attacks against CIA and its collaborators. MASFERRER explained at this meeting that Libertad had started publication with $3,000.00, advanced by Rolando NOVIA (201-294243); which was depleted and more funds were needed. He said experience had taught him that the only way of achieving something in journalism was to follow a "hard line" in its pronouncements, whether they adjust to the exact truth or not. According to MORENZA, all of the articles concerning CIA and its collaborators have been written by Rolando MASFERRER. 3. On 8 June 1969, MORENZA visited AMOTEX-30 to ask the latter to help him find a job in New York as he was planning to quit his job with Libertad. MORENZA seemed restless and worried. He told AMOTEX-30 of Rolando MASFERRER's plan to devote the next three or four issues of Libertad to a ruthless attack on CIA and its collaborators mentioning both Americans and Cubans. He said that MASFERRER has compiled quite a bit of information, including names

and background data on CIA, and that he was looking for photographs of some of the persons whom he would mention in the articles. MASFERRER plans to mention activities of the past as though they were currently taking place. MASFERRER hopes in this way to increase collection of funds to enable continued publication of Libertad. 4. AMOT comments that since Libertad was first published, MASFERRER has used blackmail to obtain operating funds from affluent exiles and exile businessmen. Also, MASFERRER's desperate attacks against CIA could be the fact that on 19 June 1969 the New Orleans Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals will hear the appeal presented by MASFERRER's attorney, Gino NEGRETTI, regarding the sentence imposed by a Federal Court which sentenced MASFERRER to a few years of imprisonment. MASFERRER could possibly wish to make a deal with CIA offering to stop attacks in return for a favorable decision on his attorney's appeal. 5. The article of 6 June 1969 issue of Libertad refers to Luciano MARTINEZ Ortega (201-292688), Arturo CASTRO Rodriguez (201-328685), and Rafael LLANEZA Gomez (201-291555), who were involved in reporting on the Haitian Invasion Plan which was headed by Rolando MASFERRER. Vicente Rafael ZORRILLA (201-269100) was not involved in the case though he is mentioned in the article. The principal source of information was AMFIX-1, who was reporting directly to AMOTEX-15. It is noteworthy that AMOTEX-15's name is the only one missing in the article. After the arrest of personnel involved and the pick-up of their equipment by U.S. authorities, directed mainly by AMSWIRL-1, AMFIX-1 received a reward. AMFIX-1 did not appear as a witness against MASFERRER. 6. A number of the articles are allegations against Joaquin SANJENIS (201-266348). 7. AMOT-31 (201-287314), who was terminated after an investigation of his activities (UFGA-21388, 11 May 1965), as well as his close friend AMCONCERT-1 possibly could be involved in providing material to Libertad.
