SUBJECT: Plans for a National Anti-War Conference to be Held in Sydney, Australia 17-21 February 1971
and a Third National Moratorium on 30 April 1971. ✓

1. We have been advised by the (Australian Service)<sup>24</sup> that there are plans for a National Anti-War Conference to be held in Sydney, Australia on 17-21 February 1971 and a Third National Moratorium to be held on 30 April 1971. In August 1970, one Arthur John LLOYD/(not further identified) circulated a proposed listing of foreign invitees to the Anti-War Conference. Following is a listing under sub-paragraph A of those invited; under sub-paragraph B of those who have already refused; and under sub-paragraph C those who have accepted:

A. Invited:

(1) Rev. Ralph D. ABERNATHY, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (see your memorandum from Atlanta, Georgia, dated 4 November 1970, entitled Ralph D. ABERNATHY - Racial Matter);

(2) Father Eugene BOYLE, Sacred Heart Church, San Francisco, California (see your memorandum from Boston, Massachusetts, dated 6 August 1969, entitled Black Panther Party, Page 3);

(3) Noam CHOMSKY, Professor, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (see our memorandum to you dated 18 May 1970, Subject: Travel of U.S. Nationals to North Vietnam);

(4) William Sloan COFFIN, Chaplain, Yale University;

(5) Rev. Earle CUMMINGHAM, Cleveland (not further identified);

(6) David Tyre DELLINGER (Bureau File No. 100-384411);

(7) Donald DUNCAN, former member of the Green Berets (see your memorandum from San Diego, California, dated 17 February 1970, entitled Mark LANE);
