Panamanian Repressive Measures against Cuban Exiles
ACTION: See para 5.
1. A compilation of information reported by Station penetrations of the local service (i.e. HYEPOCH-5, HYEPOCH-11; HYRAVEN-11) indicates that the local security service is assuming an increasingly hostile posture against Cuban exiles traveling to Panama. The reporting sources coincide in their information that this attitude is directed primarily against Cuban exiles residing in Miami. It appears that this development may be the result of the reporting of HYGRUFF-1's agent in Miami, Salvador ALDAREGUIA. ALDAREGUIA continues to report from Miami alleging cooperation between Cuban exiles and Panamanian exiles in Miami who are opposed to the regime of General Omar TORRIJOS Herrera. 2. HYGRUFF-1 recently submitted a watchlist of Cuban exiles to Tocumen International Airport (TIA) and other Panamanian ports of entry ordering the recipients to deny entry into Panama to all those persons on the watchlist. HYEPOCH-5, the most alert of all Station penetrations commented that in his opinion the list contained Cuban Embassy input because his service did not have the capability to collect sufficient data on all the persons listed to be able to make a meaningful evaluation of which ones are dangerous. The Station has not been able to confirm HYEPOCH-5's suspicions. 3. For the record, the Cuban exiles on HYGRUFF-1's watchlist are the following: (continued)

4. Of the persons listed above, MCNERTNEY knows Orlando GARCIA Vasquez well. GARCIA was born in Cuba, became a naturalized U.S. citizen when he fled from Cuba to the United States. He eventually settled in Venezuela where he became a close friend and confidant of Carlos Andres PEREZ, now president of Venezuela. Aside from Venezuelan diplomatic posts he has held abroad he was at one time Chief of Operations of DIGEFOL. MCNERTNEY commented that if the Panamanians ever had the temerity to mistreat GARCIA that PEREZ' reaction against TORRIJOS would undoubtedly be fierce.

5. We defer to Headquarters to name check these individual ascertain if BERNERD has any operational interest in any of the and advise the responsible component to take precautionary measures in the event any movement of these individuals involves travel to or transiting Panama. FELIPE

The ratings above, and narrative comments hereunder, are derived from a synthesis of all evaluations submitted on each respective trainee by the instructor staff.

Overall performance ratings of all students in this class were as follows:

WEAK 0 ADEQUATE 0 PROFICIENT 6 STRONG 0 OUTSTANDING 0

NARRATIVE COMMENTS

FELIPE was handicapped to some degree by his weakness in English language. FELIPE's attitude throughout the course was cooperative and congenial. His participation in lectures, plans, and field exercises suffered from a lack of concentration and thoroughness. He appeared to have only a partial grasp of many of the topics presented. He was inclined to rush a bit in planning exercises and was also somewhat hasty in his execution of field work (Mapping, Reconns, tactical movement in Raid and Ambush Exercises).

In his leadership assignment, he planned reasonably well, but his execution of the plan was weak and he lacked good control of the group.
