Subject: Leo Figueroa

Report No.: 278-89

Date of Info: as indicated

Place Acquired: Viet Nam, Hanoi

Date Acquired: 1 August 51

Evaluations: B-3

Date of Report: 2 August 51

Sources:

1. According to Huang Dai, who works in the Viet Minh Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Leo Figueroa was in Saigon in early 1950. The French did not allow him to remain in Saigon and he was forced to return to France. Figueroa later went to Hong Kong in late August 1950, and then proceeded to the Viet Nam via the Hoa Nam (F.C.; South China ?) road to attend the Third Congress of the FCI held in early October 1950.
2. There had been several previous cases of individuals who were unable to reach Viet Minh territory from Saigon because of French interference. In July 1949 Mr. A. Roth, Editor of the Sunday Tribune, arrived in Saigon and obtained all necessary papers; the French did not allow him to proceed because of his pro-Communist articles. Others were Walter Briggs of the Christian Science Monitor, Harold Tennes from Newswatch, and S. J. Perelman (because he criticized Bao Dai in Westward, No. 1).
