GENERAL

At Cheverly, Maryland:

On 17 May 1961, a live address was established for Gladys G. DANBRUNT at 5611 Jason Street<sup>10</sup>, Cheverly, Maryland, through the cooperation of Dr. Edward A. and Anne B. SALLOON, householder at that address.

On the same date, Mrs. SALLOON, her daughter, (Patricia) and son, George, were briefed to the effect that they should accept any cables, letters, telegrams or telephone calls for Mrs. DANBRUNT. In the event any inquiries were received concerning Mrs. DANBRUNT, they were to advise that Mrs. DANBRUNT was residing with them but that she was not available at the moment. They were to determine who was calling and the purpose of the call. If the call was from the cable or telegraph office, Mrs. SALLOON or (Patricia) was to call back later as Mrs. DANBRUNT and receive the message and request delivery of the written cable or telegram. In the event the inquiry was from any other source, they were to contact the Reporting Agent immediately.

The same individuals were further briefed, in general, as to why Mrs. DANBRUNT was supposedly residing with them and why she was expecting some form of communication. They were informed that Mrs. DANBRUNT was the mother of Eustace H. DANBRUNT, who was being held a prisoner by a foreign government. The mother has sent a cable to her son asking how he is, whether he needs anything, inquiring if there is anything she can do for him, and asking him to please communicate with her. She is now awaiting and expecting some form of reply from him.

On the following day, 18 May 1961, Dr. SALLOON was<sup>06</sup> contacted. The above information had been related to him by Mrs. SALLOON at the request of the Reporting Agent. Dr. SALLOON was requested to notify the (Cheverly) and the (Hyattsville) Post Offices that Mrs. DANBRUNT was residing at his home and any mail received for her should be delivered to his address.

On 22 May 1961, Dr. SALLOON was again contacted and he advised that he had personally called the Postmistress at the (Cheverly) Post Office regarding delivery of Mrs. DANBRUNT'S mail and had requested

He served in the Army as a <sup>08</sup>(dentist) and upon his release, as a Lieutenant Colonel, he re-opened <sup>06</sup>his private practice with an office at <sup>08</sup>(1035 "I" Street, N.W.). For a number of years he was on the <sup>08</sup>(Staff of Georgetown University as an instructor of <sup>06</sup>Dentistry in the Georgetown Dental School). He has resided in (Cheverly) Maryland for at least the past twenty years, previously at <sup>08</sup>(2816 Laurel Avenue) and currently at <sup>06</sup>(5611 Jackson Street). His daughter, <sup>08</sup>(Patricia), is attending Maryland University. His son, <sup>06</sup>(George), is attending <sup>08</sup>(St. John's) College High School.
