SAIFELDINE AHMED ABDENABI WADI-RAMAH
Also Known As Dr. Abu Ayman Wadi, Sayf Ramahi

Subject, commonly known as Dr. Abu Ayman Wadi and Sayf Ramahi, was reported by a source who has furnished reliable information in the past as being head of Al Fatah in the United States during 1971 and 1972. (5)

Following the massacre of Israeli athletes at Munich, September, 1972, his name was furnished to the National Security Agency (NSA) as being of interest to this Bureau. He departed the United States during the latter part of July or early August, 1972, and a return visa was denied by U. S. Department of State. He reentered in early December, 1972, in possession of a passport in a variation of his true name and was subsequently located. Subject thereafter voluntarily departed the United States and has not returned. However, sources have reported subject interested in returning to the United States.

Information from NSA has assisted this Bureau in following subject's location and activities since his departure.

provided during the last week of December and the first week of January:

1. With respect to each of the examples of effective prevention of violence provided the Committee pursuant to John Elliff's letter of November 26 to Mr. Shaheen, please provide access to materials in the investigative file for the 6-month period preceding the act of violence prevented. Please deliver:

(a) All materials relating to the legal and factual predicate for each investigation;

(b) The first investigative report disseminated outside the FBI in each such case, and a list of recipients of that report;

(c) The total number of individuals whose names were referred to the FBI's general name index in the course of each investigation;

(d) The total number of individuals about whom information was obtained through informants, confidential sources, physical surveillance, electronic surveillance and other sensitive techniques; and

(e) The annual report from the office of origin for each such investigation to FBI headquarters for the last five years during which the case in question was an open investigation.

2. Please provide any information which you have refuting the suggestion made on page 34 of the General Accounting Office's September 24 report to the House Judiciary Committee, that cases in which violence can be predicted probably represent less than 2% of all FBI domestic intelligence investigations.

3. Please provide all memoranda or analyses prepared for the Justice Department, Director Kelley, or Assistant Director Wannall on the findings of the General Accounting Office as presented to the House Judiciary Committee on September 24.

4. Please provide the annual report from the office of origin to FBI headquarters for the investigation of
