1. On 12 April 1964, James Patrick, Executive Director of Freedom, Inc., advised that on 11 April 1964, he had been contacted by a man who had been in the office of the SA, New York. A man named Charles, who had been in the office of the SA, New York, had been in the office of the SA, New York, and had been in the office of the SA, New York.
James P. advised that, according to Charles, as a result of contact with the SA, New York, in view of the work in New York, Charles was assigned to the office of the New York State Police in New York, New York, and is in New York State Police office. Mr. Patrick mentioned that the man named Charles, who had been in the office of the SA, New York, in order to obtain more background information and an assignment in Charles.

2. On 1 May 67 Mrs. Haddock advised that Charles was staying at the Park Sheraton Hotel, New York, and that he had telephoned her since her name had been supplied to him by Joyce. Charles mentioned her to be his point of contact in Washington. According to Mrs. Haddock, Charles had conversations to the Vice President's Council, Senator Pastore, and Congressman Ferrer (Illinois). However, Charles was willing to talk to representatives of Mrs. Haddock's office. Mrs. Haddock stated that the Haitian had been in Haiti the week to go to New York to talk to Charles and Arthur Glik to accompany him. Charles speaks very little English and a fluency in French was therefore required for the future visit. Mrs. Haddock stated that she might be able to obtain a French language from Marine Army, Commander's School, but it would not be an intelligence officer. It was stated that some talent, New York Office, who has a knowledge of the French language would accompany the AMI representatives 12/27/67 COMA. It was also suggested that they would meet the AMI representatives (Captain Rogers) at the Park Sheraton Hotel where Charles was staying.

3. On 2 May 1945, Dwyer reported that Col. Holt had interviewed Mr. Dwyer in Kent, Ohio. Holt had appointed Charles as Director of his bank in Haiti. Charles, according to Dwyer, formerly had no political opinions but as a result of the current political situation in Haiti, Charles now thinks that he may want to be President. Dwyer described Charles as well-connected, politically and financially, on both sides of the fence in Haiti. He is also a good friend of General Dewar. Dwyer had given Charles letters of introduction to Senator Keating and to other politicians in Washington. Charles wanted to see President Kennedy and asked how close to the White House to arrange a - an appointment. He was well received by the President's executive secretaries and invited to dinner that evening with the appointments
