In answer to the House Committee's request of

Vol. I, Section 2, Question 10, the following was made available:

An affidavit stating that the CIA had had no relationship of any kind with Lee Harvey Oswald before the 11th of May 1963.

Further, that "the Agency never contacted Don Stewart, Jim

Witold, or anyone else connected with him, directly or indirectly, from Jan. 1, 1960, or thereafter, nor did the Agency ever contact him.

(U.S. Senate - CIO, 52d, 526)

On those same dates, A.P. Polk's telephone listing before the House Committee on 10th Street, N.W., gave the same report.

~~It appears from examination of all available materials,~~

~~that Lee Harvey Oswald was not examined by the CIA following~~

~~his return to the United States from the Soviet Union although~~

~~agents in a branch of the Soviet KGB in Moscow reported ex-~~

~~clusively returning Oswald, they were following up his interest~~

~~There is also no indication that the Director's office~~

~~of Operations interviewed Oswald~~

~~While the CIA did conduct interviews of some persons who~~

~~visited the Soviet Union during the period 1959-1963, as well as some~~

~~business interests who departed to the Soviet Union and then returned to~~

~~the United States, this was not standard policy to interview all persons~~

~~one more time after the description sounding so precisely follows~~

~~by the CIA at that point in time~~

~~HSCA was advised that at that time~~

~~Oswald's return there would likely be no further~~

~~attention to him, since the defectors~~
