LIFE INSURANCE: An employee is automatically covered under the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Act unless he waives or subsequently cancels such coverage by filing the required waiver form with the Office of Finance. The insurance coverage is $10,000; or an amount equal to the gross annual salary, rounded to the next higher thousand dollars (if the salary is not a multiple of a thousand dollars), plus an additional two thousand dollars; whichever is the greater. Additional optional insurance coverage in the amount of $10,000 is also available.

HEALTH BENEFITS: The Federal Employees' Health Benefits Program is available on a voluntary basis with costs partly financed by the Government. Within 31 days after the effective date of appointment, every employee must register to enroll in a plan or not to enroll. Future opportunities to enroll or to change the type of enrollment are shown in the enclosed pamphlet. Also enclosed is the necessary registration form, Standard Form 2809.

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS: Monthly deductions for bonds in regular bond denominations may be authorized. Authorization cards are available in the Finance Office.

WORK INJURY BENEFITS: An employee injured or incurring disease as a result of performance of duty is entitled to medical care and monetary benefits under the provisions of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act. In instances where such injury or disease is fatal, the employee's family is entitled to monetary benefits. The Compensation Act is administered by the Bureau of Employees' Compensation, U.S. Department of Labor. Forms for filing notices of injury and claims for compensation are available in the Office of Finance or from any Postmaster.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION: An employee may under certain circumstances be entitled to unemployment compensation if discharged or otherwise separated from his employment. The compensation is usually payable by the State (including the District of Columbia) in which the employee had his last service. However, a claim for benefits may be filed in the local office nearest the employee's residence. If an employee is discharged for misconduct, quits voluntarily without good cause, or refuses a suitable job without good cause, then there is a period of disqualification which varies from State to State. The amount of payments and period of time payable also varies from State to State.
